

Libby & Slapshot are First Horses for Therapeutic Riding Center

autism | balance | body awareness | hippo therapy | socialization | therapeutic horseback riding

Therapeutic horseback (hippo therapy) riding center, Willow Creek Ranch, is scheduled to open in Wisconsin in the spring. Partners Jennifer Pape and Hally Arzola, with Libby and Slapshot, will help children with autism improve: "visual orientation, attention and focus; body awareness, posture and balance; self esteem and socialization; and muscle tone and flexibility."

Read original story.

page last updated 09/12/2007

To receive the weekly Autism Therapy eBrief, enter your email address here:

Or subscribe to feed using a feed reader.

